Composition: The composition of the committee will include seven tenure-line faculty members (at least one of whom is a Faculty Senator) elected by the Faculty Senate. These faculty members should represent a minimum of five different colleges/schools, with at least two faculty members at the level of Professor and at least two faculty members at the level of Associate Professor. These seven elected members will serve staggered 3-year terms. Finally, the committee will include one ex-officio member, who is one of the two faculty representatives to the BOV Research committee.

Charge: To work in concert with the Office of Research and its subsidiary offices (e.g., Office of Research Integrity and Assurance, Office of Sponsored Programs), as well as the Associate Vice President for Entrepreneurship and Innovation, in shaping the research initiatives and policies of the university. The committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Vice President of Research, the Associate Vice President for Entrepreneurship and Innovation, and associated offices. In this role, the committee will meet at least twice per semester with the Vice President of Research, and as needed with other individuals and offices. The committee will provide a report on its activities to the Faculty Senate at least annually.

Salary Equity Study Committee

Motion proposed by the Faculty Matters Committee to establish a Standing Committee on December 4, 1996. The motion was amended and approved by the Faculty Senate on December 11, 1996. The charge was further amended on April 7, 2004, and April 23, 2014).

Composition: Five members. The composition of the committee must include members with a knowledge of statistical measures and with a knowledge of university compensation policies. The Faculty Senate shall elect 3 members one of which must be a Senator; the provost and equity Offices will appoint one member each.

Charge: To systematically study annually the distribution of faculty salaries at all ranks as identified in Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of the Faculty Handbook; to systematically study salaries by gender, by race/ethnic divisions, by local academic unit, and other variables as may be relevant; to examine frequencies of men/women and of members of different race/ethnic categories within LAUs; and additionally to investigate the potential for individual equity measures. Working with the support of Institutional Research and Reporting and Human Resources, the committee shall monitor the establishment and maintenance of a database of faculty compensation including all categories and ranks of faculty, and shall report its aggregate findings on salary and on the status of the database annually to the Faculty Senate and provide specific data to the Equity Office, the Provost, Deans and Directors, and to other LAU administrators.

Technology Policy Committee

Composition: Seven members, at least two of whom must be senators and one an ex-officio faculty member designated by the Provost. The composition should be such that most academic units are represented.

Charge: The Committee will actively advise the Vice-President of Information Technology and other administrators in investments and in implementation of computer-based technologies that impact the educational techniques in the University. The Committee also advises on the development of new computer-based educational techniques and research capacities within the University. The Committee will work cooperatively with the central administration to formulate the technology budget of the University. These actions will ensure that the recommendations issued by the Committee reflect the position of the faculty concerning allocations to programs and/or individuals. The Committee will work with the administration to review and maintain a clear and equitable policy pertaining to intellectual property rights of the faculty.

University Promotion, Tenure and Renewal Appeal Committee

(Approved by the Faculty Senate February 13, 2013 and by the Board of Visitors March 20, 2013; inclusion in the Faculty Handbook effective July 1, 2013. Revisions approved by the Faculty Senate February 1, 2017 and by the Board of Visitors May 11, 2017; inclusion in the Faculty Handbook effective July 1, 2017.)

2.8.2 University Promotion, Tenure and Renewal Appeal Committee

2.8.2.1 Committee Charge

Upon written appeal, the UPTRAC reviews the decision of the Provost or President not to recommend tenure, promotion, or renewal. The committee must publish and follow standard procedures for its conduct that are consistent with provisions in this section. The committee members (including the member chosen by the appellant) do not act as advocates for either the appellant or the university. The committee does not review the merits of the tenure, promotion, or renewal case itself.

2.8.2.2 Committee Composition

The UPTRAC shall be composed of three tenured faculty members and two alternate tenured faculty members, elected by the Faculty Senate to staggered terms; and two tenured administrators and one alternate tenured administrator, selected by the Provost to staggered terms. Committee terms are for two years. No two committee members may be from the same local academic unit or administrative unit. A member can serve a maximum of two consecutive 2-year terms, although subsequent non-consecutive service is permitted. Elected alternate members' terms formally begin during the first year that they participate in an appeal. For the purpose of service on the UPTRAC, a local academic unit administrator is considered an administrator.

The appellant will choose a tenured administrator to serve as the sixth member of the committee for the duration of the appellant's appeal. The administrator must be someone who does not have a conflict of interest, who did not participate at an earlier stage of the appellant's promotion, tenure, or renewal process, and who does not come from the same administrative unit as one of the Provost's appointees.

If any member of the UPTRAC has a conflict of interest, participated at an earlier stage of the appellant's promotion, tenure, or renewal process, or is otherwise unable to serve, such member shall not participate in the appeal, and an alternate will serve instead. In the event there are not sufficient faculty alternates to serve, the Faculty Senate shall elect additional alternate members to serve for the appeal. If the need for faculty alternates arises after the last Faculty Senate meeting of the academic year, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee will select the alternate(s). In the event there are not sufficient administrators to serve, the Provost shall select alternate members to serve for the appeal.

Writing Across the Curriculum Committee

Composition: One elected representative from each of the academic units offering undergraduate degrees, the Director of the WAC Program who is an ex-officio member with no vote or possibility to chair the Committee.

Charge: To advise and work closely with the University Coordinator on Writing Across the Curriculum on current and projected activities and events and to assist departments in the identification and definition of writing-intensive courses in their curricula. To:

- A. Articulate and refine the requirements for the WI designated course designated to fulfill the WI requirement in every undergraduate degree across the university with the purpose of establishing homogeneous WI criteria;
- B. Assist colleges, schools and institutes in the identification of existing or new courses that degree programs propose to meet the WI requirement in their curricula;
- C. Review regularly the courses WI-syllabi to determine compliance with the WI requirement;
- D. Suggest ways to meet the WI requirement to faculty teaching the WI designated courses; and
- E. Assist with activities and events related to writing across the curriculum.
